

Thank you from the Editors

The Victorian Naturalist could not be published, and would not be successful, without the enormous amount of time and effort given voluntarily by a large number of people who work behind the scenes.

As always, we particularly thank our authors, who provide us with excellent material for publication.

One of the most important editorial tasks is to have papers refereed. The Editors would like to say 'thank you', therefore, to the following people who refereed manuscripts that were published during 2013:

Joanna Browne
Laurie Conole
James Fitzsimons
Maria Gibson
Ken Green
Patrick-Jean Guay
